FINAL PLANING GUIDE

Final Planning Guide. Emphasis must be placed on the importance of everyone having a WILL. If you pass away intestate, that is, without having a will, the intestate Succession Act dictates where your assets will go. In other words, the Government will make the decisions for you. DO NOT LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU. Each province has its own rules governing the Intestate Succession Act, and here is the link to Ontario's act,
