Medical Update - Wayne Moore

Wayne Moore has been in the hospital this past week, but is now back home as of today (Saturday, November 22nd). He is currently waiting on biopsy results and is feeling very weak. If you would like to reach out with your support, please contact him by email @ moorewr@rogers.com.

Honouring Our Own – Jerry Proc

We are proud to announce that Jerry Proc has been awarded the Houck Award for Documentation.

Congratulations, Jerry — your website is an excellent resource!

Honouring Our Own – Pat M Cornect

We are proud to announce that Pat M Cornect has been awarded the Award of Merit for his continuing support of Canadian Korean War Veterans at the “Honouring the Brave” luncheon.

Honouring The Brave Luncheon

🎄 🎄 The CFS Leitrim ARM is reserved for the Christmas Luncheon on December 9th, 2025. Significant others are welcome to join us and this event will be catered by Lolacher’s Catering Company for $45/plate which must be prepaid to Butch Whitlaw whitlawb13@gmail.com no later than December 3rd, 2025.

The event starts at noon, with the Buffet dinner being served at 1 PM (13:00).

The menu is as follows:

- Chef Salad
- Oven Roasted Turkey
- Stuffing
- Tourtiere
- Swedish Meatballs
- Cream Whipped Potatoes
- Peas & Carrots
- Rolls, butter
- Christmas Desserts
- Tea, Coffee

There will be a 50/50 draw (33/33/33), as well as door prizes and raffle, especially for those of you who have been naughty or nice.

If you have any door prize donations, bring them to the luncheon.

If you have an ugly sweater, by all means wear that if you wish.

We look forward to celebrating the season together — good food, good company, and holiday cheer!

Closing Note

As always, thank you to everyone who continues to share stories, memories, and milestones. Your contributions keep our community connected and our history alive.
